

KODAK Film School COMPETITION 2010

Win a trip to

Clermont-Ferrand International Short Film Festival

in France inclusive of airfare and accommodation. Contact your local Kodak office for more information.

NOW IN ITS 11TH YEAR, 2009 WINNERS ARE:

United States & Canada winner

CHRIS FREILICH

from the American Film Institute, with

"Half Kenneth"

Latin America winner

HATUEY VIVEROS

from the Centro de Capacitación Cine matográfica, with

"The Dead Children's Song"

Europe & Middle East winner

ANDRZEJ KROL

from the Fachhochschule Dortmund, with

"Birthday"

Asia-Pacific winner

LIU YIZENG

from the Beijing Film Academy, with

"The Accident"

Regional Judging by World-Renowned Cinematographers

2009 John Bailey, ASC • 2008 Don Burgess, ASC

2006 & 2007 Peter James, ACS, ASC

2004 & 2005 Laszlo Kovacs, ASC

2003 Fred Elmes, ASC • 2002 Caleb Deschanel, ASC

2000 & 2001 Oliver Stapleton, BSC

For more information on the KODAK Film School Competition including previous winners visit

www.kodak.com/go/filmschoolcompetition

Film. No Compromise.

Kodak

* All images in the film strips are of the 2009 KODAK Filmschool Competition winners or from their winning films.

Cinematography that best serves the story

The focus of the KODAK Film School Competition is on the film's cinematography and the innovative use of available resources to create the images that complement the story.

The KODAK Film School Competition will be conducted in various participating countries and film schools. The winning film from each National Competition will then be judged at a regional level to select the overall competition winner. Eligible participants are invited to submit original films on the following conditions:

HOW TO REGISTER

1. Each entry must be submitted by the cinematographer. Only one film and only one cinematographer per entry is permitted.
2. A short synopsis and production crew list must be attached to each entry form.
3. Entries must be originated on Kodak Super 8 Cartridge, 16mm or 35mm Kodak Motion Picture Film.
4. Entries must be submitted on DVD.
5. The cinematographer and crew members must be either
 - a) currently enrolled in a full time film or related production training program, or
 - b) graduated from a full time film or related production training program within the last 12 months of the competition closing date.
6. Animation is accepted if originated on film.
7. All judge's decisions are final.
8. A copy of the winning National Competition film must be made available by August 16, 2010 for Regional Competition judging.
9. Kodak will be responsible for freighting the winning National Competition films to and from the Regional Competition judging venue.
10. The winner of the Regional Competition will receive a trip to Clermont-Ferrand International Short Film Festival during January 2011. The prize includes a single round trip economy ticket to Clermont-Ferrand and accommodation.
11. Optional for the Regional winner, should they wish to participate in the Kodak Short Film showcase at Clermont-Ferrand they need to supply a 35mm print of their film.
12. The names of the winners may be published on the website at www.kodak.com/go/motion. Winners agree to allow the free use of their names, photographs and general location for publicity and news purposes in connection with the KODAK Film School Competition.

KODAK Film School Competition 2010 Key Dates

See your local Kodak rep for entry deadline for the National Competition. National Competition winners will be determined by August 16, 2010. The Regional Competition results will be announced by November 1, 2010.

HOW TO REGISTER YOUR FILM

Ask your local Kodak rep for a Competition entry form which should be completed and attached securely to your entry.

www.kodak.com/go/filmschoolcompetition